ORDER ADJUDGING RESPONDENT IN INDIRECT CRIMINAL CONTEMPT OF COURT AND ORDER OF COMMITMENT

On the 2nd day of December, 2023, this Court issued an Order to Show Cause directed to Defendant, Ryan Burke, ordering Defendant to appear and show cause why she should not be adjudged guilty of, and punished for, criminal contempt of court for perjury in pursuit of his efforts to have service of process quashed occurring by affidavit filed on November 22, 2022, in deposition testimony given on February 23, 2023, and in Court on August 21, 2023.

The Order to Show Cause was served upon the Respondent on the 2nd day of December, 2023, in accordance with Fla. R. Gen. Prac. & Jud. Admin. 2.516.

A hearing was held on this matter on the 8th day of April, 2024 at 9:30 a.m.. Upon due deliberation, advice of counsel, and evaluation of the evidence presented, this court FINDS, beyond any reasonable doubt, that Mr. Burke lied in his affidavit, his deposition testimony and in open court.

The court further finds:

A. Mr. Burke, knowingly and with the intent to obstruct the administration of justice, provided false testimony that he was physically in Las Vegas, Nevada on April 11, 2022. This false testimony is contained in his Affidavit executed on October 17, 2022 which was filed with his Motion to Quash Service of Process filed on November 22, 2022. The Affidavit also included a fake travel document or record locator purportedly issued by American Airlines. The false testimony was repeated in his deposition on February 23, 2023, and again in open court August 21, 2023 at the hearing on his Motion to Quash Service of Process.

B. Mr. Burke's false testimony was directly pertinent to the issue at hand, to wit: whether Mr. Burke was personally served with process on April 11, 2022.

 FILED: BROWARD COUNTY, FL BRENDA D. FORMAN, CLERK 05/13/2024 09:35:15 PM.*

C. Mr. Burke's false testimony had an obstructive effect and resulted in an order quashing service of process.

It is therefore ORDERED and ADJUDGED that Ryan Burke is guilty of indirect criminal contempt of this Court with regard to his Affidavit and deposition testimony and is guilty of direct criminal contempt with regard to his testimony in open court due to his perjury.

For such contempt the Respondent is committed to the Sheriff of Broward County to the county jail for three consecutive days to be served between May 15, 2024 and July 15, 2024, commencing on Friday at 5:00 p.m. through Monday at 4:00 p.m. After being confined for such period, Mr. Burke shall be duly discharged from imprisonment according to law. This is a reduction from the sentence pronounced in open court due to BSO's inability to provide incarnation for multiple weekends.

If Mr. Burke seeks to appeal this order, he shall post a bail bond in the amount of $500.00.

In the event Mr. Burke does not report and does not appeal, the court will entertain a further motion for contemp.
